Cyber Criminals: Who are they? Why are they successful? How do we respond?

Kim Peretti

Director, Forensic Services Practices
PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP

Formerly Senior Counsel
US Dept. of Justice, Criminal Division
Computer Crime and Intellectual Property Section

This session will walk through recent prosecutions of sophisticated hacking rings in order to provide insight into the individuals behind these types of crimes and why they are successful. This presentation will also discuss the emerging area of cyber forensics and methods by which entities can better prevent, detect, and respond to cyber attacks on their systems.

Tuesday, March 29, 2:00 PM
